

FARM BUREAU SCHOLARSHIPS

The Rosebud-Treasure County Farm Bureau will award a $500 scholarship to a graduating senior. They must be a member of a current paid up Montana Farm Bureau family residing in Rosebud or Treasure County.

Criteria use for selection are scholastic achievement, leadership, personal goals and community and school activities. The county winner is then eligible to compete for a $1500 scholarship made available by efforts of the State Women's Committee and the County Farm Bureau.

Apply for the Rosebud-Treasure County Farm Bureau by filling out the Montana Farm Bureau Federation Scholarship application available at mfbr.org under scholarships at the bottom of the home page.

Two Scholarships are offered by the Montana Farm Bureau Foundation.

- The $1500 Bernard Greufe Honor Scholarship is to assist Montana Farm Bureau members and children of members as they pursue a higher education. This award is not limited to students pursuing a degree or career in agriculture.
- The $1500 Future of Agriculture Honor Scholarship Application is to assist Montana Farm Bureau members and children pursuing a major, minor or graduate degree in a field pertaining to agriculture from an accredited institute of higher education. Students must be enrolled at that institution for the Fall 2020 semester and achieved at least a sophomore level of education.

Deadline for return of all applications is April 1. Applications are available from guidance counselors at Forsyth, Colstrip, Rosebud, Hysham, Ashland and Lame Deer schools. If you have questions you may direct them to Laureen Lackman at 342-5883.
